ASIA WORLD MODEL UNITED NATIONS III

“Be a Part of World’s Changes”

November 13th - 16th, 2019
Bali, Indonesia
Model United Nations is a simulation of a United Nations Conference attended by young leaders, referred to as Delegates, who are assigned a country to represent in one of the United Nations’ numerous committees with pre-set topics to debate. It is also a platform where young leaders from all over the world gather in one place with similar aim, that is to improve their skills in leadership, negotiation, and diplomacy. All those skills can be obtained by joining and participating in the Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) III.

Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) III is a Model United Nations carrying the theme of The Implementation of World’s Agenda 2030. Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) III aims to facilitate young leaders from different places to broaden their networks and to provide a platform to share their perspectives, particularly on Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) that will be discussed in each council.

The delegates will have a discussion on the mentioned issue for each goal and will be guided directly by the chair and co-chair. Therefore, Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) III will be an excellent choice for young leaders who wish to enhance and develop their capabilities in communication and diplomacy skills.
THE PURPOSE OF THE EVENT

1. To facilitate young leaders from all over the world to broaden their network.
2. To improve young leaders’ perspective on the world in order to form critically thinking generations.
3. To provide a platform for young leaders to improve their soft-skills in leadership, negotiation, and diplomacy.
4. To allocate the opportunity of experiencing the atmosphere of the United Nations Conference.

DELEGATES

Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) III offers three types of participants, i.e. single delegate, group delegation, and observers. As for single delegates and group delegations, Asia World Model United Nations III is targeting 2,000 delegates from all over the world, consisting of:

1. College/High School Student
2. Graduates of University *with age around 17-25 years
3. International Delegates who are enrolled in international organizations/institutions/companies

In regards to the participants referred to as “observers” can be described as participants that are older than 14 or between 26 - 60 years old. However, these participants will not be given any voice or represent a country during the conference. Should any group delegation wish to be accompanied by a Faculty Advisor, the Faculty Advisor is required to register as an observer.

Group Delegations can be described as participants who wish to contribute to the conference together with their colleagues from High School, University, or Institution. These group delegations will attend the conference as representatives of their respective institutions.
SERIES OF ACTIVITIES

1. Grand Symposium

Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) III holds a grand symposium during the opening ceremony with the theme of The Implementation of World’s Agenda 2030 conducted by outstanding speakers that will discuss recent international issues regarding the topic in each council.

2. MUN 101

Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) III organizes MUN 101 and Zero Conference before the committee sessions start so that the delegates may earn how MUN works and understand the Rules of Procedure deeper. Both MUN 101 and Zero Conference will be explained by our Board of Dais. They will explain and teach the delegates step-by-step procedure of the MUN and they will be discussing interesting topics in the Zero Conference.

3. Committee Session

Delegates will be assigned to represent a country in each council that has been chosen by the delegates and discuss the particular topic in their council. Delegates will be moderated by the Board of Directors during the committee session.

4. Bali City Tour

Delegates will be invited to witness the alluring beauty of the Island of Gods, Bali. During the city tour, delegates will be visiting iconic tourism spots exhibiting the captivating cultures of Bali that cannot be found anywhere else, such as Water Blow Nusa Dua, Uluwatu Temple, and Pandawa Beach.

5. Diplomatic Dinner

Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) III provides a networking moment, namely Diplomatic Dinner. Delegates will experience multiculturalism through diplomatic dinner where they may expand their network by meeting other delegates from various countries.

6. Awarding

An awarding ceremony will be presented to appreciate the participants’ hard work and enthusiasm during the committee session.

6. Cultural Night

There will be a set of cultural performances during the closing ceremony where the delegates will perform on stage to exhibit the culture of their nations.
